How we partner with Law Firms

- We help you make your case successfully. We provide useful intelligence that assists in determining if you would like to move forward with certain clients, like your bellwether cases.
- We vet your clients, just like we do for the entertainment industry.
- We provide research services that may be outside of your normal scope, or resources.
- The universe of information is huge, and it will help to gather a history of the past bad acts.
- This level of research cannot be accomplished in a day.

What can a licensed private investigator do for you?

Why do you need a seasoned, experienced, licensed investigator in your back pocket?

You may be surprised to learn that we have access to many data resources that you don't have access to. Law firms typically use Westlaw.

Client Locates

- Locates: sometimes in volume, and sometimes difficult locates. This is called skip tracing, and sometimes it's quickly resolved, and sometimes, it just isn't, and will take time.

There are innumerable reasons why your client's aren't answering when you reach out: moved, lost interest, family issues like a death or bad timing, in jail or prison, or they just are demoralized....

What to look for in an investigative partner

Licensing.

Online presence that looks professional.

An active LinkedIn profile.

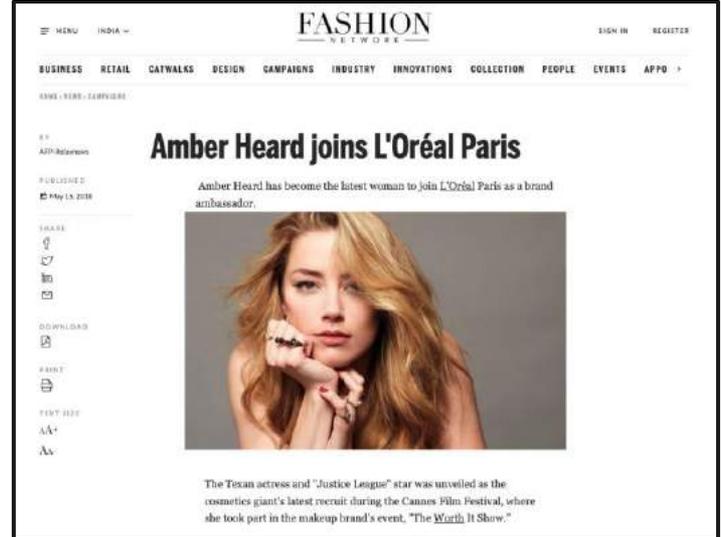

Maybe some awards.

Professional associations.

Carol knows them.

A Great Example of What We Do:

...“This fact could provide fodder for discussion in the press and online that can lead to Amber being called out, resulting in her appearing at the least foolish, and at the worst, a sociopathic liar. Should the press discover, and write about ....., and spin it as ....., we believe that this will cause a damaging spiral of discussion, circling back on her past involvement with Mr. Depp and Ms. van Ree, failing to show for depositions, associated fines, and such, the public may fall out of like with her.”

Johnnys and Ambers Help or Hurt Your Cases

Amber Heard was "ice cold" and "didn't seem natural" in court, a juror in the multimillion-dollar libel case brought by her ex-husband Johnny Depp has said.

Speaking anonymously to Good Morning America, he revealed one of the reasons that the jury ruled against the actress was because her testimony "didn't come across as believable".

"It seemed like she was able to flip the switch on her emotions," the juror said.

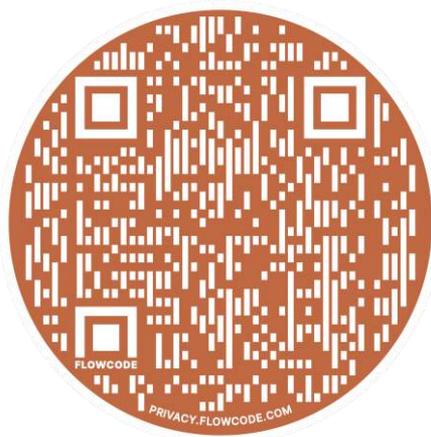

"She would answer one question and she would be crying and two seconds later she would turn ice cold. It didn't seem natural."

By contrast, Depp "just seemed a little more real in terms of how he responded to questions".
